Gender: Male

Age: 21

Location: Canada

Education: Master's Degree in Statistics

Background Discription

Usama is a data analyst who works for a research firm that specializes in population data analysis. He need access to a large amount of data and require advanced analytical tools to perform his job effectively. He is interested in analyzing population data to identify patterns and trends that can influence policy decisions.

USAMA RAZZAQ

Data Analyst

Motivations

• Usama wants to access reliable and up-to-date population data that he could use to inform policy decisions and promote social justice.
• As a data analyst, Usama needs to work with accurate, high-quality data in order to draw insights and create the basis for his analysis.

Goals

• He focus on using population data to promote positive change in the world.

• He want to access reliable and up-to- date data, as well as tools for analysis and visualization.